

APRIL 20-22, 2012
NEW VENUE!

REGISTER ONLINE

WWW.WILDLANDFIRELITIGATION.COM

THE CONFERENCE WILL INCLUDE:

- 8 HOURS OF LEGAL TOPICS
- 7 HOURS OF FORENSICS
- 6 HOURS OF WILDLAND FIRE INVESTIGATIONS
- 6 HOURS OF DAMAGES

CIVIL LITIGATION ISSUES INCLUDE:

- e-Discovery
- Tucker Act and FTCA Litigation
- Professional Responsibility Issues (Conflicts and Waivers)
- Causes of Action Under CC§815
- Subrogation Issues in Wildland Fire Litigation
- Game Theory Applications to Mediation
- Revisiting the Storrie Fire Case
- Deposition Survival Skills
- Implied Easements for Public Safety

FORENSICS ISSUES INCLUDE:

- Uses and Limitations of Fire Modeling Software
- Red Flag Warnings
- Fuel Moisture
- Utility Construction Fires
- Hot Metal Particle Ignitions
- Latest Lidar Technology
- Modeling Wildfire Growth and Behavior

WILDLAND FIRE INVESTIGATIONS ISSUES INCLUDE:

- New Technology for Fire Investigators
- Testing the Hypothesis
- Railroad Operations and Equipment Fires
- Practical Wildland Fire Scene Documentation Procedures

DAMAGES ISSUES INCLUDE:

- Cost of Cure Tree Damage Valuation
- Forensic Accounting Evaluations of Income Loss
- Appraising Conservation Easements
- Appraising Fee Interests Subject to Environmental Easements
- Credit Record Damages
- Wildfires and Natural Damage Assessment
- Damage to Perpetual Conservation Easements

6TH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Last year's event was attended by 180+ professionals from several disciplines, 23 states, Australia and Canada. In attendance were fire investigators, forensic experts, appraisers, environmental damage and restoration experts, USFS, BLM, CDF, FEMA, state fire fighting and prevention personnel, public utility personnel, vegetation management contractors, insurance adjusters, subrogation department employees, litigation case managers, arborists, foresters, plaintiff and defense lawyers, government lawyers, subrogation lawyers, in-house lawyers for utilities, railroads and government agencies.

Register Today!

TUITION $595

Includes Printed Material or Flash Drive and two drink tickets for Conference Reception.

DETAILS

Up-to-date Program, Faculty Bios, Accommodations Reservations, Educational Credits and Tuition payment are online at www.wildlandfirelitigation.com or for more information call Ken Roye (530) 893-2398.

REGISTER ONLINE

WWW.WILDLANDFIRELITIGATION.COM